

BOY SCOUT MEMORABILIA Prices Realized Guide: The $1,000 Club (Boy Scout Memorabilia Prices Realized Guides)

Long-time Scouting Memorabilia Collector Jason Spangler answers one of the biggest questions that Boy Scout collectors have: What is something worth? In the hobby, eBay is the most active market for items to be bought and sold. So while prices may be inflated or depressed according to the bidding and buying patterns on the auction site, Jason tracks the closing prices realized for the purpose of this project. By using eBay results Jason gives collectors a baseline, ballpark figure by documenting what items sold for in the past. Many factors such as condition, bidding patterns, and gotta-have-it fever will have impacted these prices. Ultimately, you have to decide how to value items but understand that eBay is the closest we have to measuring what the market will bear for a Scouting collectible. In this, the first volume in the series, Jason examines EVERY item in the eBay Boy Scout category that sold for $1,000 or greater in 2011.

Call My Journey...LifeSports, movies, family, kids, marriage, health, lifeWednesday, November 28, 2012Quick updateThe last time I posted a lot has changed. So for a quick update, my husband got a new job. As soon as we got an offer on our house we accepted we accepted it. We found a house to live in and put an offer on the table and after a little negotiation we can to an acceptable and agreeable offer. After a very painful moving process, which lasted 33 day after the original closing date we finally closed.I quit my part time teaching job. Now I get to stay at home with Roarie and substitute teach every now and then.Posted by Mrs. Stacie Christner at 8:13 AM Reactions: 75 comments: Friday, April 27, 2012Education CutsOne of the most important things in life is to have a good education. Teaching is the only occupation that shapes our country. We teachers touch every life from the farmer to the lawyer, to the CEO of some big company. Granted you may not use everything that learn in the classroom but the structure, respect, responsibility, social skills and time management are life skills that are used everyday.The frustrating thing about being a teacher is the lack of money put into education. I am not complaining about how much money I make because teachers do not go into teaching. What I am complaining about is teachers getting cut, class sizes are getting bigger, and yet we still get the same pay. The schools who have the money have the money get the technology and the good test scores. The better the test scores the more money you get. So if you a poor school you don't get the technology and yet you don't get any money for the low test scores. So the rich get richer and the poor get poor.Needless to say, I have gotten word from the school superintendent that my special education position is being cut. I am still going to have a teaching job being a part time American History teacher. Which I am glad that I am getting into the general education setting and that I get to be a part time stay-at-home mom but at the same time I wish I had a full time, paying job.Posted by Mrs. Stacie Christner at 7:39 PM Reactions: 24 comments: Sunday, April 15, 2012Manners Meal Every year, the Colfax-Mingo Middle School does what they call manners meal. Grades six through eight take a field trip to a designed location and practice using good dining manners. So on Friday, April 13, 2012, we went some where local, the Colfax Historical Building for our dining. Before we go on our trip the staff reviews what it is to have good manners. There are so many manners to cover and sometime we just assume that it will happen but it doesn't. Here are a few manners that we
