

Speak Bulgarian Like a Native: Bulgarian Idioms in Context

HOW THE BOOK IS ORGANIZED

Speak Bulgarian Like a Native is a self-study reference book that consists of 28 topical units. Each unit includes popular Bulgarian idioms, English translations, definitions in Bulgarian and examples of the idioms used in context. There is also a section at the end of this book called False Friends which contains information about idioms that sound similar in Bulgarian and English but differ in meaning. These idioms will be marked with an endnote whenever they come up throughout the text. The authors are working on a new book that will include exercises and will be intended mainly for classroom use.

WHO CAN USE THE BOOK Speak Bulgarian Like a Native is a reference book for upper intermediate and advanced students of Bulgarian who speak English. Teachers of Bulgarian will also find this book useful as additional course material.

HOW WERE THE IDIOMS SELECTED The idioms selected for the book are widely used in the contemporary Bulgarian language. Sometimes an idiom has more than one meaning but a second meaning is only included if it is also popular and widely used. The examples are written by the authors but are based on research of the usage of the idioms in the media and everyday life.

SOME IMPORTANT NOTES Idioms are fixed expressions that cannot be understood by the meanings of the separate words they are made of. Idioms are sometimes used without any changes but they still comply with the rules of grammar. This book is intended as a quick reference guide, thus, not all possible word forms are included. Therefore, the speaker needs to make the necessary changes e.g. to use the appropriate verb form or the correct object pronoun.

ABOUT THE ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS Whenever possible the idioms are translated with a corresponding English idiom. When it is not possible, a definition in English is given. THANKS AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS We are expressing our special thanks to Milena Mileva-Feno and Barry Feno our editors and English translators for their invaluable insights and constant support and encouragement.

Call My Journey...LifeSports, movies, family, kids, marriage, health, lifeWednesday, November 28, 2012Quick updateThe last time I posted a lot has changed. So for a quick update, my husband got a new job. As soon as we got an offer on our house we accepted we accepted it. We found a house to live in and put an offer on the table and after a little negotiation we can to an acceptable and agreeable offer. After a very painful moving process, which lasted 33 day after the original closing date we finally closed.I quit my part time teaching job. Now I get to stay at home with Roarie and substitute teach every now and then.Posted by Mrs. Stacie Christner at 8:13 AM Reactions: 75 comments: Friday, April 27, 2012Education CutsOne of the most important things in life is to have a good education. Teaching is the only occupation that shapes our country. We teachers touch every life from the farmer to the lawyer, to the CEO of some big company. Granted you may not use everything that learn in the classroom but the structure, respect, responsibility, social skills and time management are life skills that are used everyday.The frustrating thing about being a teacher is the lack of money put into education. I am not complaining about how much money I make because teachers do not go into teaching. What I am complaining about is teachers getting cut, class sizes are getting bigger, and yet we still get the same pay. The schools who have the money have the money get the technology and the good test scores. The better the test scores the more money you get. So if you a poor school you don't get the technology and yet you don't get any money for the low test scores. So the rich get richer and the poor get poor.Needless to say, I have gotten word from the school superintendent that my special education position is being cut. I am still going to have a teaching job being a part time American History teacher. Which I am glad that I am getting into the general education setting and that I get to be a part time stay-at-home mom but at the same time I wish I had a full time, paying job.Posted by Mrs. Stacie Christner at 7:39 PM Reactions: 24 comments: Sunday, April 15, 2012Manners Meal Every year, the Colfax-Mingo Middle School does what they call manners meal. Grades six through eight take a field trip to a designed location and practice using good dining manners. So on Friday, April 13, 2012, we went some where local, the Colfax Historical Building for our dining. Before we go to on our trip the staff reviews what it is to have good manners. There are so many manners to cover and sometime we just assume that it will happen but it doesn't. Here are a few manners that we covered: Appearance- The students were to Shower, which as middle school students it is a challenge for some, and use soapFix hair up niceWear dress clothes- dresses, dress pants, dress shirtWear minimal make-upWear minimal perfume or cologneTable Setting-Silverware start on the outside and work your way in and the fork at the top of plate is the desert forkThe drink is off to your leftWaiting for others-Wait for everyone to arrive to your table before seating yourselfWait for everyone to get their food before you begin eatingTable Talk-Speak softly to the people at your tableDo not interruptDo not talk about bodily functions (farts, pooping, etc.)Say "Please", "Thank you.", "You're welcome." , "Pardon me" Some things we took for granted and expected the students to know were:Keep elbows off the tableKeep elbows as close to your sides as possible when eatingKeep hands to your self (which is hard to do for middle school students)Listen to speaker (which is hard to do in the classroom too)Pass dinner rolls and salad dressing all around the tablePosted by Mrs. Stacie Christner at 4:57 PM Reactions: 18 comments: Labels: education, Teacher AdviceMonday, April 9, 2012Roarie Meets her CousinsRoarie is 7 weeks old and finally got to meet half of her cousins yesterday at Easter. 18 comments: Labels: personalOlder Posts HomeSubscribe to: Posts (Atom) About MeMrs. Stacie ChristnerI am a second year Special Education teacher at Colfax-Mingo Middle school.
